CINCINNATI NATURE CENTER ⁸ Enjoy a breathtaking view of the Ohio Valley's changing seasons from one of Cincinnati Nature Center's state-of-the-art meeting rooms! The Nature Center is set within a beautiful 1,800-acre preserve of forested hills, wetlands, and prairies. Whether you're looking for a rustic indoor space, an elegant outdoor pavilion, or an intimate woodland setting, there's a location here that can fit your needs.

The Cincinnati Nature Center features 2 unique lodges: the Krippendorf Lodge and Groesbeck Lodge.

Nestled among the stunning woodland gardens, the impressive Krippendorf Lodge provides exceptional indoor and outdoor meeting and event space to accommodate groups up to 220. A stunning, covered porch wraps around the facility and offers additional space for many different event options. Inside the lodge, several wood-paneled rooms can be flexibly joined together as one open space or remain as separate, more intimate enclosures.

The beautiful Groesbeck Estate will accommodate 45 guests inside with outdoor space for an additional 120 guests. Groesbeck features a front terrace, indoor space, and an expansive, covered Tritsch Terrace that offers space for larger meetings, retreats, and dinner. Located in the front of the Groesbeck Estate is the Haile Pillar Garden, a circle of stone pillars that offers a grassy space within, and can host up to 120 people seated theater-style. The circle garden is also a lovely outdoor option for wedding ceremonies, cocktail hours, breakaway work sessions, team-building activities, or awards ceremonies.

The Nature Center also has 2 outdoor shelters, The Krehbiel Pavilion and Fernwood Shelter, available for rent which hold 50-75 guests, as well as 2 small meeting rooms in the Visitor Center. Add an educational element with a tour or cooking classes that focus on environmental sustainability!

LOCAL DINING

Whether you need to fuel up with your group or are looking to enjoy some Cincinnati flavor, Clermont County has a lot to offer. Many local restaurants feature event catering with semi-private and private spaces for reservation.

At sunrise, be sure to grab a cup of joe and some sweet treats from any of our charming cafés. Abby Girl Sweets is a delicious family run cupcakery; Sucre Loveland is an upscale patisserie known for French inspired desserts, and Busken Bakery, Pop's Donuts, Marcella's Doughnuts and Holtman's Donuts is where you will find the freshest gourmet doughnuts. If you just need a good caffeine fix, visit one of our many coffee shops: Bean & Brew, Branch Hill Coffee, Forager Coffee & Tea, Goshen Grind, Mile 42 Coffee, or Wholy Beans.

Pizza Parties are perfect for any occasion and Clermont has two choice local pizza parlors, each with multiple locations with delivery and catering. LaRosa's Pizzeria, known for their signature pizza sauce, which has a rich, slightly sweet flavor, has served up real Italian family recipes to communities and guests for over 70 years. Grammas Pizza, known for their hearty, generous portions and brick oven pizzas, has been serving Clermont County for over 40 years. Both pizzerias are family friendly and have built strong relationships with the community.

Cincinnati-Style Chili, named one of the "20 most iconic food destinations in America" by Smithsonian, is a unique type of Mediterranean-spiced meat sauce that is traditionally used as a topping for spaghetti or hot dogs. This beloved regional Cincinnati dish typically includes ingredients like cinnamon, cloves, allspice, cumin, and sometimes chocolate or cocoa, giving it a slightly sweet, aromatic flavor. Visit one of our Skyline Chili or Gold Star Chili locations to try this unique Cincinnati favorite.

Cincinnati's brewing history dates back to the early 19th century, with a significant influence from German immigrants. As an important part of Cincinnati's economy and culture, the craft beer movement is strong within the region. Enjoy local brews at Fifty West Brewing, DVD Brew, Hops & Berry Taproom, Little Miami Brewing, Mt. Carmel Brewing, Narrow Path Brewing, Sons of Toil and Paradise Brewing. Need something a bit stronger? Enjoy signature cocktails at Cincinnati Distilling, RJ Cinema Distillery & Taproom or New Richmond Distilleries. If vino is more your style, try Fulton Grove Winery, Harmony Hill Vineyards, Indian Springs, or Rose Boutique & Wine Bar.

THE UPSIDE TO DOWNTIME

Have a break in the actions? Check out these fun-for-all attractions, located in or near Clermont County:

Gaming and Entertainment - Enjoy the excitement and thrill of every spin of the reels on the gaming floor at Belterra Park Gaming & Entertainment Center. Catch the horse racing action during the live racing season with outdoor entertainment and simulcast or grab a quick bite and enjoy all your favorite foods.

Historical Museums - The Cincinnati area is full of cultural centers ranging from unique exhibits to historical sites and interactive kid friendly museums. For those who enjoy connecting with history, visit President Grant's Birthplace, tour the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, explore military aviation at the Tri-State Warbird Museum, or enjoy more than three million artifacts, archival materials, and artworks at the Cincinnati Museum Center at Union Terminal.

Professional Sports - Your athletes and team members can enjoy non-stop action and affordable entertainment at one of Cincinnati's professional games! The city is home to the Cincinnati Bengals, Cincinnati Reds, Cincinnati Cyclones, and FC Cincinnati.

Shopping - Jungle Jims International Market is a foodie destination like no other. Boasting one of the largest indoor markets in the country, a state-of-the-art meeting venue and onsite cooking classes. For foodies who want to discover new flavors, learn about diverse cultures, and have fun with food, Jungle Jims offers almost endless possibilities.

Outdoor Recreation - The Miami Valley Trail System is a scenic and popular paved route for cyclists, runners, and walkers. The trail connects multiple communities and even portions of Cincinnati. Enjoy beautiful views of nature along the Little Miami River and explore the connecting villages with their range of restaurants, shops, and cafes.

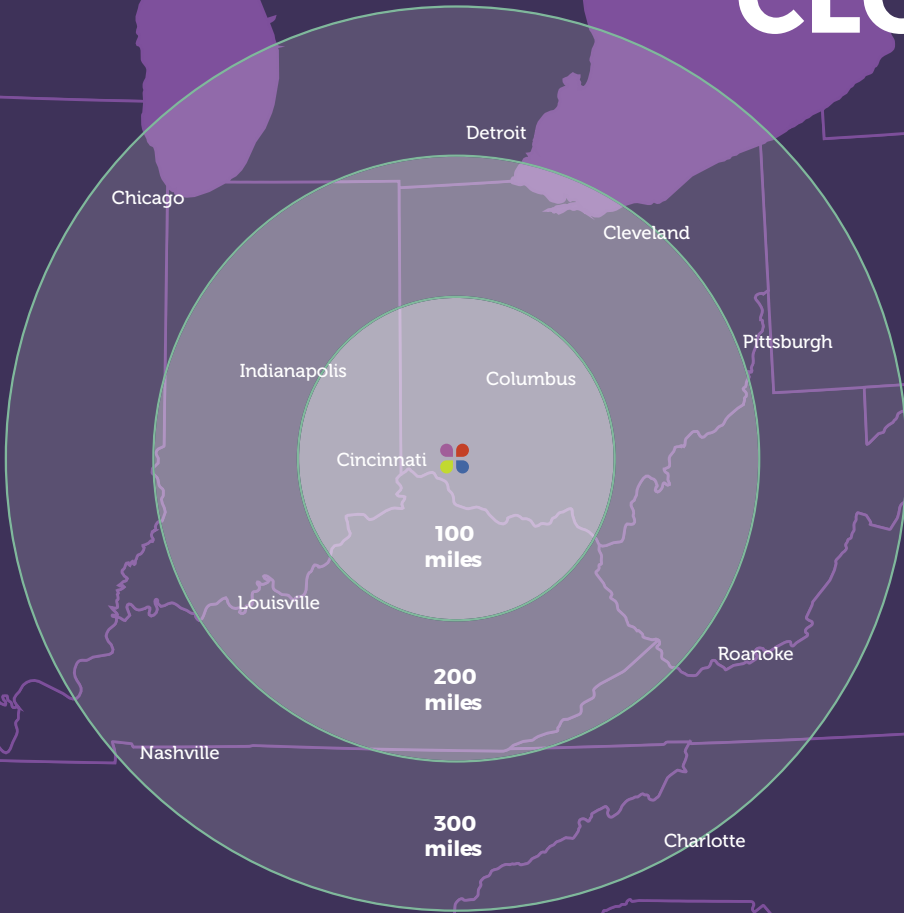

Nature - If connecting with animals is more your style, visit the amazing animals at the Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Gardens, the aquatic exhibits at the Newport Aquarium or the wetlands and forests at Cincinnati Nature Center. Clermont also has two state parks: East Fork State Park with lake activities, camping, archery, and horse, hiking and bike trails, and Stonelick State Park with lake activities, camping, disc golf, and hiking.
